JOIN WITH THE ST. TAMMANY SALT COUNCIL TO MAKE 2018 THE BEST-EVER GULF COAST ELDER ABUSE CONFERENCE. AS A SPONSOR YOU DEMONSTRATE YOUR COMMITMENT TO FIGHTING ELDER ABUSE AND INVEST IN YOUR ORGANIZATION'S CAPACITY TO IMPROVE THE LIVES OF SENIOR ADULTS.

The 2018 conference is the 12th production by the SALT Council, a leader in presenting information and educational programs to help improve the safety and security of people over age 50. The Council is a 501c3 Louisiana Non-profit Corporation, IRS Tax ID 20-8587363. Since 2007 the SALT Council has presented professional Elder Abuse education in recognition of World Elder Abuse Awareness Day, and actively trains professionals throughout the year.

Training is critical in the battle against Elder Abuse. The identification and recognition of the broad range of abuse is the first step in intervening and preventing the maltreatment that impoverishes, injures and demoralizes the Senior population. Training professionals whose responsibilities include the safety and welfare of Senior Adults is the main path to making a difference in the lives of the elders who have meant so much to our nation. In addition to the annual conference, the Council's training program includes statewide certified training of law enforcement officers, education of victim advocates, seminars for professional caregivers (including home care and home health providers), support and educational opportunities for Elderly Protective Services personnel, and continuing education for the legal, medical and social services communities.

Sponsors are the primary resource for the development of the conference, so we ask you to take an active role in the Conference. Your funding is certainly vital to the event and we encourage you to sponsor at the highest level possible, but we also need your help in promoting and marketing the event. Distribute flyers, put up posters and the Sponsors' decal at your place of business, include Conference mailers with your direct mail contacts, develop dynamic booths with information about your organization's efforts to combat Elder Abuse, and use the scholarships included with Traditional Sponsorships to reach more professionals. Many of the attendees are present because of sponsor scholarships; this is the power of sponsors taking an active role in the event and expanding the number of professionals trained.

Conference attendees and presenters travel from all over the country to participate in this excellent training opportunity; in 2017 almost 200 people registered from twenty states. This is a rare opportunity to reach activists across the nation with your marketing message. The conference will also include a related Senior event about Financial Exploitation that will provide an opportunity to market directly to Senior Adults.

The two-day conference format offers 24 class hours each day to the attendees - 12 class hours available in just two days, with continuing education credits available for many professions, including social workers, attorneys, bankers, counselors, nurses and others. As always, the conference will feature nationally recognized experts and highly skilled Louisiana professionals to offer the best training possible on a wide range of Elder Abuse issues. The curriculum will be announced in January, but the topics will include the critical issues in countering the impact of Elder Abuse.

Attendees receive Conference binders, catered lunch, and for those who qualify, continuing education credits. With instruction by experts and a wide choice of topics, attendees recognize the value of this conference and the value of the sponsors, as shown by a critique that included the following comment: "[I] received a lot of helpful information from all the vendors that were present from different Organizations."

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGES

The 2018 Conference Sponsorship Packages are dynamic with many options; we have retained the pricing of Traditional sponsorships and added expanded Exhibitor offerings. The entire Sponsorship program is designed to provide you with promotional opportunities that offer greater exposure to demonstrate your commitment to fighting Elder Abuse. The SALT Council wants you to benefit as our partner!

Traditional Sponsorships are based on the practices developed during the history of the conference. Continuation of these successful offers is valued by our sponsors each year, and they give new sponsors the benefit of previous experience by those organizations that have put their resources into supporting the conference in the past. Traditional sponsorships offer recognition, promotional opportunities and scholarships to train your staff, vendors or anyone else you think will benefit from this excellent opportunity. Your sponsorship includes a marketing opportunity during the public Senior Event titled “IT’S YOUR MONEY—KEEP IT!!” This free event is a great workshop to help Senior Adults understand the nature of Financial Exploitation, including scams and frauds directed at elders. Seniors get a great lunch and plenty of time to meet you on the Exhibit Floor.

Once again the Traditional sponsorships include a full page color ad in the conference binder! You design it and it will be included for all the attendees to get more information about your organization. Conference decals suitable for doors and windows are provided to sponsors so the public can see your active involvement in the advocacy against Elder Abuse. And your logo will be placed on the conference web site and on many of the printed marketing materials.

All of this, and the cost for the Traditional Sponsorships is the same as last year; and if your Traditional sponsorship fee is paid by December 29, 2017 there will be a 5% reduction in the cost!

Special Sponsorships are exciting opportunities developed specifically for organizations that prefer to participate without having representation on the Exhibit Floor. If your organization wants to contribute to the mission of the conference but it does not have a structure or operation that is enhanced by scholarships, booths or direct staff participation, a Special Sponsorship is your answer. These sponsorships benefit the conference and the attendees, while also demonstrating a strong commitment to advocate against Elder Abuse.

Traditional & Special Sponsorship logos will be posted on the conference web site with a link to the web site of your choice.

Scholarship Sponsorships are an option that helps you help Elderly Protective Services and law enforcement agencies send their personnel to the conference. This is the fourth year of this program that is of great importance because the budgetary impact that frequently prevents these vital professionals from attending the conference.

Exhibitors are welcome at both the Conference and the Senior Event. If your organization or agency does not sponsor events but you are permitted to exhibit at events that promote your efforts, there are several options for you.

The forms with this prospectus include the complete list of sponsorship and exhibitor opportunities. If you have any questions, contact the Conference Office by phone or e-mail and we will be pleased to assist you. Act early to take advantage of the best opportunity for you by completing the correct Reservation Form that is included with this packet.

Senior Event Information

Every year the conference includes a special workshop for Senior Adults to learn about Financial Exploitation. The event is based on sound training programs about the frauds, scams, misconduct, misrepresentations and some lawful-but-unwise offerings that cost billions of dollars of loss for Seniors every year. "IT'S YOUR MONEY - KEEP IT!!" is presented by talented professionals, and it is free to Senior Adults and their mature children.

All Traditional Sponsors are invited to participate at no added cost so they can connect directly with the Seniors and demonstrate their commitment to improving the safety and security of Senior Adults. As noted in the Special Sponsorship Reservation form, there is an option to have a table at the event. Exhibitor opportunities are also available for this event.
